Yesterday we closed a contract to do some printing for a stranger, who has been convinced Lima, for the past week, soliciting job printing from our business men, with a good deal of success, and we only refer to him now in order that our people may see how they allow themselves to be swindled. This fellow has

Our Missouri Correspondence.

GREENWOOD, Mo., April 8, 1873.

Mr. L. HARPER—We are now enjoying the second edition of Winter, revised and improved. A severe storm has been preparing for twenty-four hours and still it snows. The early shrubbery which was induced by the pleasant weather of the past two weeks to put forth its foliage, now linguishes amid the snow-drifts, while the blue-bird and peewee have retreated

Southward in good order.

The past Winter was very severe and will long be remembered as the hard Winter.

The fruit of the Peach and Cherry is generally killed but the trees are not materially injured. The Winter wheat looks fine and promising and we hope will bring relief to some extent to man with whom the sound of the grinding has been long for many months. This part of the Southwest is now passing through the fiery ordeal of hard times generally. Many who were enticed to this beautiful country were carried away by the tide of speculation and bought extensively of the beautiful prairies whose virgin soil they fondly hoped would do the work for the stranger at seventy dollars, but if our business men prefer to give the fellow five dollars a piece, without compensation, we do not know that anybody has a right to complain. We think, however, that if our people generally were to follow their example, and buy the land for five dollars a piece, and then sell it for fifty dollars, they would be cheating the poor fellow who has been deceived by the tide of speculation and

bought extensively of the beautiful prairies

A SUBLIME LOVE AFFAIR.

A Minnesota Claude Melnotte.

Whether the rugged rocks, the crystal casades, the dashing waterfalls and park-

like valleys hereabouts do or do not engender a romantic love in the breasts of the girls and boys in this region, we are unprepared to say, says the Duluth Herald,

but there is certainly something etherial in the air, or water, which causes some of Minnesota's young men and ladies to fall very deeply into the depths of the tender passion; and sometimes they exhibit

this feeling in various ways. As an evidence of this, we record an episode in the life of a not-long-ago wedded pair.

A young man named Henry Bretland, aged twenty-two, who had been an employee somewhere along the line of the N. P., met at St. Paul last summer Miss

Susie K. Englefield, a girl of fifteen, daughter of a German settler living near

Kettle river, and an intimacy sprang up between them. They corresponded for a while, and one of Henry's letters happened to fall into the hands of Susie's brother,

Wilhelm, there was a big explosion on the part of her father and mother, who in strong language denounced the cunning and unbecoming conduct of their son, and he was told that the thing must be stopped at once. And as they thought

Official Paper of the County.

EDITED BY L. HARPER.

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 18, 1873.

Senator Thurman has our thanks for bound volumes of the Congressional Globe.

The official majority for Charles A. Otis, Esq., the Democratic candidate for Mayor of Cleveland, is 1,650.

"Private Dalzell" is organizing a Private Soldiers' National League, without the consent of General Comly.

The Democratic Liberal majority on joint ballot in the Connecticut Legislature will be eleven. Connecticut is the test State.

Hon. R. B. Roosevelt, (Democrat), M. C. from New York, has given the $5,000 extra pay money to the public schools of New York City.

The Chicago Times styles the present agitation among the farmers in the West in regard to the railroad monopolies the "irrepressible conflict."

On Friday last the funeral services over the remains of Bishop McVane, preparatory to their shipment to Ohio, took place at Westminster, London.

The Olathe Mirror is the name of the paper our friend J. B. Pollock has bought into, and he is making it a right spicy sheet—indeed, it is all-spice.

Senator Morton of Indiana, wants to be the next Radical candidate for President. He will take it out in wanting. The next President will be a Democrat.

It costs the people of Ohio $1,500 per day to run that useless institution known as the Ohio Legislature. Is there no remedy for this extravagance?

An Iowa farmer, by a mathematical calculation, has discovered the fact that it will take 30,000 bushels of oats to pay a Congressman's salary under the steal bill.

Colfax has consented to emerge from the shades of private life long enough to lecture before the citizens of Westerville, Franklin county, one of these evenings.

Out at Olathe, Kansas, white corn is selling at 17 cents, yellow at 15 cents, and oats at 19 cents per bushel. It takes about two bushels of corn to buy a bushel of coal.

The Napoleon North-west sent a good word in favor of Hon. Isaiah Pillars, of Seneca county, as a candidate for Attorney General of Ohio, on the Democratic ticket.

The split in the Radical party, in Maryland, is complete. The Baltimore American, hitherto an influential Administration organ, denounces Grant. "When thieves fall out," &c.

The Akron Beacon wants Shellabarger to succeed Thurman in the U. S. Senate. Now, please don't worry yourself about Judge Thurman's successor. No Radical will ever get the place.

Under the rule of Radical scallawags and negroes, the debt of Louisiana is forty million dollars, and the debt of New Orleans thirty million dollars. "When the wicked rule the people mourn."

The Modoc Peace Commission has been discontinued and the "Christian Statesman," Delano, goes about the streets mourning like the whangdoodle for the loss of its first born.

Postmaster General Cresswell and Simon Cameron, ("old Winnebago"), of Pennsylvania, were in Indianapolis on Tuesday, probably on some stealing expedition. "For noble fraud!"

Mr. Johnson, the new Democratic Mayor of Cincinnati, has entered upon the discharge of his duties, and has made a splendid start—promising many reforms that are greatly needed in that city.

As the BANNER is only a weekly paper, it is a difficult task for us to record the movements of the Presidential Smoke-stack. He was at St. Louis on Saturday, on a dead-head expedition to his farm.

The majority for Hon. Frank H. Hurd, the Democratic candidate for City Solicitor in Toledo, is 240. Mr. Jones, the Democratic candidate for Mayor in the same city, had 73 majority.

The official majority for Judge Sample in Coahoc county, for member of the Constitutional Convention, is 153.—Those who crowded over the supposed election of Spangler were "a little previous."

The attorneys who collected the $800,000 Kentucky war claims against the General Government, charged the moderate sum of $60,000 for their services. A small matter to be making a big fuss about.

The Holmes County Republican, whose editor is Postmaster at Millersburg, has a chapter on "how best to serve the Republican party." Party before the people is the Grand object—holders think most about.

A dispatch from Washington says that Delano denies the report that he contemplates retiring from the Interior Department. Such denial was wholly superfluous. There is nothing "retiring" in Delano's character. He will stick there while there is a dollar in the treasury.

If we ever had one spark of love for Lo, the poor Indian, it has been completely extinguished since the recent treachery and murder practiced by the red devils called the Modocs. Such brutes have no souls to be saved, and the sooner they are swept from the earth the better it will be for the good of mankind.

J. S. Van Valkenburg has retired from the Fremont Messenger, having sold his interest in the paper to his late partner, Mr. Osborn; and W. C. Gould has retired from the Washington (Fayette county) Register. We regret to lose the services of these valuable laborers in the editorial vineyard.

Charles Francis Adams' account as Arbitrator of the United States at the Geneva Tribunal was closed on Monday at Washington, he receiving $22,500 in gold for just one year's service. He was allowed the same pay per annum that he received as Minister to England, with an additional sum of $5,000 for traveling expenses.

The Colfax Bond Robbery.

Just before adjournment of the last Congress, the residence of Hon. Schuyler Colfax, at Washington, was entered by thieves, his trunks and drawers broken open, and U. S. Bonds to the value of one hundred thousand dollars were stolen therefrom.—An attempt was made to keep the fact of the robbery out of the papers—the police only being entrusted with the secret, on account of the excitement then prevailing all over the country in regard to Mr. Colfax's connection with the Credit Mobilier and Nesbitt bribery. But the truth has at length come to light; the stolen property has been recovered; but the names of the thieves are kept a profound secret, and no effort is being made to prosecute them.—This throws a mystery around the affair that is exciting considerable comment.—How it happened that Mr. Colfax, who always professed to be very poor and very honest, had Government Bonds, to the value of $100,000 locked up in his trunks, is unaccountably strange; and why, after the stolen Bonds have been recovered the thieves are permitted to run at large, is still more strange. Was the felony committed? Or, was the great "Christian Statesman" of North Bend afraid that if a prosecution and an investigation took place, the whole truth would come to light how a "poor and honest" man like him should have so large an amount of Bonds lying around loose in old trunks and drawers? Explanation is demanded.

Connecticut.

The Democratic victory in Connecticut is the most complete political revolution ever witnessed in this country, and shows that the people are sick and tired of Radical rule. The majority for Ingersoll (Democrat) for Governor, is about 4,000 over Haven, Radical. Since the Republican party was organized the Democrats of Connecticut have never before gained so much success. In November, 1864, Lincoln, for President got 2,406 majority. In April 1865, Buckingham, Republican candidate for Governor, obtained a majority of 11,035. In April, 1867, English, Democrat, beat Hawley for Governor by 987. One year later, Jewell, Republican, beat English by a small majority. In 1868 Grant carried the State by 3,043. In April, 1872, Jewell, got a majority over English of 2001. Last November Grant got 4,758 majority over Greeley.

General Hawley, who denounced the Credit Mobilier villainies and the back-pay swindle in the last Congress, and who generally voted right all through the last session, is re-elected to Congress from the Hartford district by an increased majority. This is a significant fact of the drift of the tide.

New Time Tables.

The new Time Tables of the P. & C. St. Louis (Pan Handle) Railroad and the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway, will be found on the first page of this week's BANNER. We recently passed over portions of these great Railroads, and found them in excellent condition, considering the length and severity of the winter. Large gangs of hands are constantly employed in repairing the track, laying down new ties, &c. A double track is being laid on the Pan Handle Road between Pittsburgh and Steubenville, and to accommodate the same, the tunnels have been greatly widened. A double track has also been laid on the Ft. Wayne Road a considerable distance West of Pittsburgh, and splendid new steel rails are taking the place of the old ones. We take pleasure in noticing these improvements, which are made for the comfort, convenience and safety of the traveling public.

The Modoc Peace Commission.

The Modoc Peace Commission has been discontinued and the "Christian Statesman," Delano, goes about the streets mourning like the whangdoodle for the loss of its first born.

Condition of the Pope.

There are conflicting rumors from Rome in regard to the health of the Pope. Last week it was reported that he was in a lethargic state, and was rapidly sinking. This week, our report states that he was up and able to attend to business, and another says that he died on Monday, but that the fact had been kept secret to avoid public agitation respecting his successor.

"Local Option" in Pennsylvania.

The Pittsburgh Mail says: The returns of the election on the local option question indicate that there will be an immense majority in the State for license. Nineteen years ago, on the first submission of this question to a popular vote, the majority against the prohibitionists was a little over five thousand. Now the majority against them will be vastly larger.

The last Republican announces that.

Mr. Agnew, after fully considering the matter, has declined to buy a share of that paper. The "Organ" will therefore be under the exclusive management of Rev. J. H. Hamilton and his son E. C. Hamilton. We wish these gentlemen all the pecuniary success their highest ambition can desire; but, politically, we hope that defeat and destruction will harass them unceasingly and eternally.

Gen. Tom Ewing will be the next Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio and will be elected, too, unless the Republican party in its official utterances repudiates corruptionists with an emphasis that cannot be misunderstood. Gen. Ewing has a fine chance "to keep himself before the people" since his election to the Constitutional Convention from Fairfield county.

Lieut. Erasmus Denison, son of Ex-Governor Denison, committed suicide by shooting himself at San Francisco on Friday last, April 18th, on account of domestic troubles.

He graduated at the Naval Academy, Annapolis, in 1867, since which time he has been in the naval service—later attached to the North Pacific Squadron.

During the past week we made a trip to Pittsburgh, by way of Newark and the Panhandle Railroad, and returning by way of Mansfield, and although vegetation is backward, owing to the long winter and cold Spring, we must say that we have never seen the wheat fields look better, or promise a more abundant yield, than they do this year.

THE MODOC WAR.

Avenge the Murder of Gen. Canby.

The war against the blood-thirsty and treacherous Modoc Indians has been inaugurated in earnest; and the peace policy, inaugurated by Delano & Co. has been abandoned as a useless waste of time and money. On Wednesday last the United States troops, under General Gillem, surrounded the lava beds and commenced shelling the devilish red skins. The conflict was earnest and decisive. Our loss in two days fighting was five killed and ten wounded. Lieut. Egan was wounded, but not dangerously. Eight Indians were killed, and some scalps taken. The Warm Spring Indians found half a dozen wounded Modocs hidden under the rocks and escaped them. The Modocs made their escape in a southeasterly direction from the lava beds and the cavalry have started in hot pursuit after them. Great excitement and alarm prevail among the settlers of the country, who are flying in every direction to escape butchery. It looks now as though the war against the Modocs will be one of extermination. Their savage treachery has invited this result.

LATER.

A dispatch from Headquarters, Lava Bed, April 20th, gives further particulars in regard to the engagement. It states that seventeen Red Skins were sent to their "happy hunting ground." Our soldiers are in possession of Captain Jack's old camp.

KILLED AND WOUNDED.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—The following is an additional list of killed and wounded in the lava bed battle of the 16th: Private J. M. Jones, F. troop, First Cavalry, finger on right hand shot away; private H. H. Smith, battery E, Fourth artillery, flesh wound in right leg; private W. Cunningham, battery E, Fourth artillery, flesh wound in small of back; Bob A. Dolles, Warm Spring Indian, in calf of leg. Col. Mason's side only one man was hurt. Private Harmon, of battery E, Fourth artillery, was shot dead in the field and scalped; private Connard, company G, Twelfth infantry, calf of leg; Sergeant Morgan, battery E, Fourth artillery, shot through the head and died in the field.

Nebraska's Snow Storm.

Fearful and Terrible Effects of the Recent Snow Storm—Great Loss of Life and Stock.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, April 21.—A special train on the B. & M. railroad came this morning, the first time for a week. The reports of the late storm show it to have been the severest ever known here. Men were frozen to death within two rods of the house, while trying to get the stock to feed them. Near Grafton, a man named Keeler attempted to reach a neighbor, scarcely half a mile away, accompanied by his wife and child, and the two latter were frozen to death. Mr. Marshall, near Hastings, perished while trying to reach the stock from his house. The wife and child of Mr. Brent, near Red Cloud, froze while attempting to reach the stock. The house was rendered uninhabitable. Their bodies were found on Friday, ten rods from the house. Families were compelled to take refuge in cellars or keep their beds for three days. Houses were still down and filled with snow. The destruction of cattle and horses was great. Some lost all they had. One party lost a whole herd of twenty-five head. The gulches on the railways were filled with snow as hard as ice, and snow plows were useless.

KANSAS.

Destructive Prairie Fire—Terrible Accident—Eight Persons Crushed to Death by a Falling House.

ATCHISON, April 21.—A letter to the Daily Champion from Belleville, Republic county, about a hundred and fifty miles west of this city, gives an account of a terrible prairie fire in that vicinity, destroying many houses, stable, cattle, grain, &c. The same letter records a dreadful accident which occurred on Monday night a week ago, during a terrific storm which passed over that county. The house of Mr. Crane near Belleville, was burned on Sunday night, and his family—a wife and four children—took shelter in the residence of a Mr. Bennett. On Monday night the storm took the roof off Mr. Bennett's house, a stone building, and blew in the gable end, and the family fell into the cellar, where the inmates had taken refuge, and Mrs. Bennett was severely injured. In the morning Mr. Bennett went to prompt westward, and when he returned he found that the floor had fallen in and his wife and three children, together with Mrs. Crane and two of her children, were crushed to death. A boy and girl of Mrs. Crane were still alive, and were carried to a neighbor's, but the boy died shortly after reaching there.

The New York Observer's View of the Corruption in Congress.

The New York Observer is a leading Religious paper in the United States. This is what it has to say about the corruption among public men.

"There stands the fact, a black, dreadful fact, that no Poland Committee can exterminate and no Senatorial investigation can wash away, that our United States Senators have purchased their seats, and our Representatives have taken money to get into Congress, and have since sold out and hid them out of sight. The taint of corruption is in the halls of the National Legislature. The offense is rank and smells to heaven."

In former periods of our own history, as well as in the history of other countries, there have been notorious examples of corruption in public men, but never has there been a time in the annals of civilization when the "curse" laid on to days so widely and generally eaten out the moral sense of the public men of any nation.—The Yazoo frauds of the State of Georgia are recalled, when we think of the membership of the Legislature took shares in a speculation and voted for their own enrichment.

"No Legislation is thought of as possible unless money is freely used. A man would go to Congress with a bill, without expecting to pay many bills before him, however righteous, was passed. Money is the power behind the throne. Money and money alone rules the State."

THE PITTSBURGH EVENING TELEGRAPH.

is a new afternoon paper just commenced in the Iron City. It is a large nine column paper, is very beautifully executed, and edited with marked ability in all its departments. The paper is published by a joint stock company, composed of some of the leading business men and Republicans of Pittsburgh, who seem to have no confidence in the Commercial under its present management. If any of our Republican friends should desire to take a first-class paper from Pittsburgh, which advocates the right and condemns the wrong in their party, we take pleasure in recommending the Telegraph.

Mr. W. W. Corcoran has sold two hundred acres of land near Washington city to the Government as an addition to the Soldier's Home, for the sum of $775,000. He will devote the money to an endowment to the "Louise Home," a charity created by him for impoverished ladies who are unable to support themselves.

The "Christian Statesman," Delano, has been burnt in effigy in a great many places on the "Pacific Slope," in consequence of his policy towards the Modocs.—The people out there distinctly charge upon him the death of General Canby.

AN EARNEST CALL.

We wish to say to our readers, one and all, who are in arrears, that we have entered into engagements which will require a considerable sum of money the coming summer. There is enough and more than enough due on our books to meet all the demands that will come upon us, without being compelled to borrow. We therefore most earnestly request all delinquents to pay the amount of their indebtedness as soon as possible. Those who may not find it convenient to call personally, can send the amount by some neighbor or by mail. Friends, do not neglect this call. We have served you faithfully. We have promptly furnished you a good paper every week, and all we ask now is that you do as you would be done by.

Death of a Centenarian.

Mrs. Barbara Bell, of Knox township, died on Tuesday last week, at the extraordinary age of almost one hundred years, having been born in Lancaster county, Pa., on the 21st of November 1773. She immigrated to Ohio in 1803, and has been a resident of Holmes county 65 years. She was the mother of ten children, five of whom are still living. Her memory was remarkably retentive, and she had a vivid recollection of the personal appearance of General Washington, whom she had frequently seen, and of the appearance of the British soldiers of the Revolution. Death came to her suddenly and when she was in the full possession of her faculties, she having taken quite a walk on the farm but a day or two before her death. In early life she became a member of the Lutheran Church, to which she steadfastly adhered until her death.—Holmes County Farmer.

Death from Injuries.

Mrs. Harriet Colwell, a widow lady seventy years of age, a sister-in-law living with Mr. Wm. Oliver, at Gambier, fell down a flight of stairs last Wednesday, and although no bones were broken, her system received so severe a shock that she died on Friday from the effects of her fall, and was buried on Sunday, below Danville, by the Methodist community, of whose Church she was an exemplary member.

Disputed Boundary Line.

The long dispute in regard to the boundary line between the townships of Morris and Berlin, is at length in a fair way of being settled. The dispute is not really between the townships, but between certain citizens of each township, whose farms are bounded by the township lines. By common consent it has been agreed to submit to a new survey, and the Surveyor of Richmond county, Mr. Newman, who has no knowledge of the claims of the disputants, has been employed to run the lines from the original field notes. Mr. Newman came down from Mansfield on Monday, ready to commence work, but our Commissioners not being in the city, he returned home, intending to come back whenever desired.

Miss Eliza A. Dupuy's New Novel.

ALL FOR LOVE, OR THE OUTLAW'S BRIDE, is the title of Miss Eliza A. Dupuy's new Novel, now in press, and to be published in a few days by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, Pa. It is a graphic story of Corsican life, in which the wild passions of that turbulent race are vividly depicted. The magnificent caverns described in its pages actually exist in that island, and they have been used as a place of concealment by the unfortunates banished by the blood vengeance which is the curse of that gem of the Mediterranean. The grand mountain scenery also receives justice at the author's hands. The story is a daily in the most interesting of the first page to the last; the action is rapid, and the interest never flags. Miss Dupuy is one of the most successful of American novelists. Her works show great constructive ability in her plots, while her characters are real men and women, not mere figures. "All For Love" will be issued in a large duodecimo volume, and sold by all booksellers at the low price of $1.75 in cloth, or $1.00 in paper cover, or copies will be sent by mail, to any place, post-paid, by the publishers, on receipt of the price of the work in a letter to them. All of Miss Dupuy's books are now being published by "All For Love," "The Mysterious Guest," "Why Did He Marry Her," "Who Shall Be Victor," "Michael Rudolph," "The Gaily," "The Planter's Daughter," and "The Canceled Will," eight in all, are put up in sets, each set in a neat box, and are bound in morocco cloth, in uniform, elegant and durable style, with new and "beautifully designed backs, in full color, and priced at $14.00 a set, and are published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, No. 305 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, who will send a set to any one, post-paid, on receipt of price.

War in Berlin.

Our special correspondents report quite a battle in Berlin Township, Monday. The facts concerning which are, as near as we can learn them, about these: The Board of Education has for some time been trying to change the District limits, in this township, they consolidate districts Nos. 6 and 7 into one and build a new school house near Jonathan Rowley's place. This change created a good deal of dissatisfaction which has manifested itself in recent times before, but culminated at the election for directors, Monday afternoon. The excitement was intense, the whole voting population being enlisted on one side or the other, and finally resulted in a free fight in which stones, etc. were freely used, but no one seriously injured. We are very sorry this state of feeling exists, for it cannot help but seriously damage, if not entirely ruin the school as well as create a source of constant trouble in the future. We shall keep our reporters in convenient locations to obtain all the news, in regard to the progress of this strife.—Preston Independent.

Legal Advertising.

The new advertising bill, which passed the State Senate on the 16th, fixes the legal "square" at 240 "ems," and the price at $2.00 for the first insertion and 40 cts. for each additional. The bill requires that the matter of the advertisement shall be set up in a compact form, without any unnecessary head lines, etc. The bill applies to all sorts of legal advertising except the delinquent tax list which is already provided for by law.

King of the Blood.

Scrofulous Eruptions. Cure.—When I commenced using King of the Blood, I was troubled with a Scrofulous Eruption on the back of my neck, extending to the back of my ears. It had existed for several months, also the inside of my ears, both had been sore for more than a year, and had resisted all attempts at healing (and they were many). I had used your medicine but a few days before my neck and ears were entirely well, and have not troubled me since and it has been several months since.
